MEMORIAL SERVICE TO THE LATE DR. G. P. JORDAN.

LARGE CONGREGATION AT ST.
STEPHEN'S CHURCH.

St. Stephen's Church, Pokfulam Road, was quite filled early on Sunday morning when there assembled members of the University, of the medical profession, of Masonic Lodges and of the general public to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Dr. G. P. Jordan, M.D., member of the Senate of the University since its foundation and for nearly 40 years a resident in Hongkong.

His Excellency the Governor (Sir R. E. Stubbs, K.C.M.G.) attended the service in his capacity of Chancellor of the University; he wore his Chancellor's robe and was preceded by the mace bearer and attended by his private secretary, Mr. Eric Rice. Members of the University Senate were also present in academic dress and members of masonic lodges attended in their regalia. Amongst those who were noticed were: the Chief Justice (Sir Wm. Rees Davies, K.C.) and Lady Rees Davies, the Hon. Sir Paul Chater, the Vice-Chancellor of the University (Sir William Brunyate) and Lady Brunyate, the Puisne Judge (Mr. Justice H. H. Gompertz) and Mrs. Gompertz, the Rev. Dr. T. W. Pearce, the Colonial Secretary (the Hon. Mr. Claud Severn) and Mrs. Severn, Dr. W. B. A. Moore and Dr. O. Marriott (representing the Hongkong and China Branch of the British Medical Association), Mr. H. L. Bridger, D.D.G.M., and Messrs. W. H. Thornton, H. Gittins, H. J. Millington, J. M. McLeod, P. W. Ramsey, A. W. Hill and Hutchison (representing the Scottish Constitution of Free Masonry); Mr. H. Percy Smith, D.D.G.M., Major T. M. Wakefield and Messrs. A. Morris, E. Ralphs, Middleton Smith and Gillard (representing the English Constitution of Free Masonry); Sir Eric Taylor, Dr. C. W. McKenny, Dr. Forsyth, Dr. Mitchell, Dr. Asger, Dr. Grove, the Hon. Mr. McE. Messer, the Hon. Mr. Chou Shou-sen, Mr. S. W. Tao, Mr. W. L. Sheaton, the Rev. J. T. Holman, Mr. Apcar, Dr. Fenton, Dr. Earle, Prof. H. Simpson, Prof. Wang, Mr. W. Logan, Mr. R. Bellios, Major Law, Prof. Byrne, Dr. K. H. Digby, Dr. Black, Mr. C. D. Melbourne and many graduate and undergraduate members of the University and students of St. Stephen's College.

The form of service followed was a modification of the Church of England burial service. The Rev. A. E. Martin read the prayers; the Registrar of the University (Dr. N. Teesdale Mackintosh) read the lesson, the Rev. C. B. Shann gave the address and the Bishop of Victoria offered the prayer for mourners and pronounced the benediction. The Rev. Li Kau-Yan, who is in charge of St. Stephen's Church, also took part. The hymns sung were: "Peace, perfect peace" and "For all thy saints who from their labours rest."

The Rev. C. B. Shann in his address said:—

We have met together to-day to do honour to the memory of Gregory Paul Jordan, a man well-known and well-loved in this Colony, and one who holds a very warm place in the hearts of all connected with this University with which he was closely associated from its very inception to the time when he sailed for England after having been Acting Vice-Chancellor for nearly three years.

For his work at the University during that time we owe him very much; he took thought for the welfare of the students not only scholastically but also in their social activities. And it is consoling to recollect that we did not let him leave us, last June, "without some expression of the value that we put on his services; officially by the conferring of an honorary degree, and unofficially by dragging him in his motor-car in triumph through the town. Now, to keep his memory green it is suggested that there should be founded in the Union buildings which he helped to furnish a Jordan Memorial Library.

It is not for me to praise him—there are many here to-day who knew him far more intimately than I did. The fact that such a representative gathering has met here this morning speaks louder than any words of mine could do to the sterling qualities of his life, and others, better qualified, have already made public the main features of his character and career. When he parted from us last June we were in hopes that he would soon return to take up his work amongst us again, but God has willed otherwise, and we are brought face-to-face again with the fact of death.

Death always has its sorrow where there are relations and friends left to mourn. It has its pathos when a man dies friendless. But, thank God, it is no longer of necessity a matter of terror. It is a mistake, as a rule, to suppose that a medical man becomes callous about death—that of another or his own—least of all a man of wide sympathies such as Dr. Jordan; but to him, in his experience,

REGISTERED OFFICE.—5, Duddell Street.

ABRIDGED PROSPECTUS.

Object.—This Company has been formed to purchase as a going concern the business known as the Humphreys Hide and Leather Works carried on by the firm of W. G. Humphreys and Company of No. 5, Duddell Street, Hongkong.

Business.—The business comprises the manufacture of all kinds of Leather and the dealing in of hides and skins, and of all descriptions of goods and merchandise incidental to the business of such nature, and is carried on upon extensive, well-built, commodious, and modern premises situated at Ma Tau Kok, Kowloon, on Kowloon Island Lots Nos. 1267 and 640, which contain an area of 110,942 square feet, held under a Crown Lease for 75 years with an option of a further 75 years from the 18th day of December, 1911, subject to a Crown rent of $200.00 per annum. These premises are within the Offensive Trade Area as defined by the Sanitary Authority and a licence has been granted by the Government to carry on the business of a Tannery in all respects thereon.

Site.—The Site is ideal for the purposes of the business, its area is ample for any future extensions that may be necessary, it is situated on the main road between Hok On and Kowloon City, and is in close proximity to the sea front.

Buildings.—The extensive buildings erected on the Property are constructed of the best solid brick and concrete with tiled roofs, and concrete pits and floor. This type of construction ensures a low rate of Insurance against Fire.

Machinery and motive power.—The Tannery is equipped with the most up-to-date Hide and Leather working machinery. The motive power is supplied by a 100 H.P. Crude Oil Boller Engine with Generator direct connected, the various processes in the Tannery being operated by separate Electric drives from individual Motors.

Water supply.—There is an independent supply of water from a specially constructed Well on the premises which is ample and suitable for the business.

Labour.—A plentiful and healthy supply of cheap country labour, both male and female is always obtainable. The expansion of the business will therefore provide employment to a large number of Chinese labourers who are increased efficiency and development is in itself sufficient to commend this undertaking to all those who have the interests of Chinese and British trade at heart. From the foregoing facts it is asserted that from its equipment and position the Tannery has few equals.

Purposes of Formation.—The Reasons of the Vendors in turning the business into a limited liability Company, are:—(a) To procure the necessary additional Capital required, in order to meet the increasing demand for their Leather; (b) To further develop the business along sound progressive lines.

TERMS OF PURCHASE.

The premises are sold to the Company subject to a charge to the Mortgagees to secure $300,000 at an interest of 7 per cent per annum. The Mortgagees stipulate that $100,000 shall be repaid by the Company at an early date and consent to the balance remaining on loan. If, as anticipated, the shares now offered to the public are fully subscribed it is proposed to pay off the whole debt forthwith.

Valuation of Property.—Hereunder are set forth at conservative figures the value of the property purchased by the Company and upon which the Vendors have based the purchase price.

(as to Mrs. Jordan in her belief) death is the gate of life. Nature teaches us this; "Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die, it beareth much fruit."

Science reinforces it by the law of the conservation of energy—the force of a personality such as that of Dr. Jordan is not lost. Christianity gives us the assurance that we long for in the Resurrection of Christ—said by those most competent to judge to be the best, proved fact in history—the assurance that the personality survives, not merely resolved into its constituent parts, but as an entity, conscious and capable of self-expression.

To those of us, therefore, to whom the Christian faith is more than a mere form of words, the beautiful phraseology of the service we are using to-day, (the burial service of the Church of England slightly adapted to the occasion) is full of comfort for the keynote of this service is the "sure and certain hope of the Resurrection to eternal life," for those who die in the Christian Faith. Trusting in this hope, we believe, Dr. Jordan has passed through the gate of death. In this faith we hope to renew our friendship with him in the future.

To Mrs. Jordan and others who here undoubtedly wish to extend our sincere sympathy—a sympathy that is very real for in truth we feel with her. But when a man such as Dr. Jordan passes from us, our sympathy does not confine itself to mere feelings. It acts as an incentive to greater endeavour. In the Analects we read: "The Master said, 'While a man's father lives mark his tendencies; when his father is dead mark his conduct. If for three years he does not change from his father's ways he may be called filial.' To-day we have before us the example of one who lived a full life, giving himself to the relief of suffering, forwarding the cause of education, taking a prominent part in the beneficent activities of Freemasonry, not disdaining the interest of hospitality and sport, and above all having a firm faith in God. Towards such a one, whom we have been privileged to have as our Pro Vice-Chancellor, we owe the duties of sons. As we thank God for Dr. Jordan's life on earth; as we praise God for the assurance that that life is not ended, but rather increased under other conditions, let us determine to follow on, that we, with all those that are departed in the true faith, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in God's eternal and everlasting glory.

REDEDOS DEDICATED AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.

The Bishop of Victoria dedicated the new rededos at St. John's Cathedral yesterday morning.

The rededos, presented by Mrs. Bowdler in memory of her late husband, is a beautiful piece of work in marble and alabaster enriched with a gold frieze. It extends the full width of the chancel and is panelled in white and brown marble to the height of eight feet. A large white cross with black background forms the central feature above the holy table and niches on either side of the altar contain statues of the Virgin Mary and of St. John, sculptured in pure white marble by Mr. Bertram Rogers of London. The whole is a delicate and beautiful piece of work which harmonises well with the stained glass window above which depicts the Crucifixion. On the side wall, near the rededos is a small inscription as follows:—

To the Glory of God and in loving memory of Edward Bowdler, who died October 4th, 1907.

This rededos has been erected by his widow.

In the course of an address, the Bishop of Victoria recalled the services to the public of the late Mr. Bowdler, who came to the Colony in 1874 and held the office of Assistant Surveyor General. He died in 1907 and his mortal remains lay in Happy Valley. For him architecture had a message; he knew the cathedrals of England and the Continent and his desire for the mother-Cathedral of the Far East was that it might be beautified and take a worthy place amongst the Cathedrals of the East. It was, therefore, especially fitting that a rededos should be erected to his memory by his widow who still lived in Hongkong.

After explaining the meaning and message of the rededos, the Bishop continued: "We think to-day of another Gregory Paul Jordan for Hongkong—Gregory Paul Jordan, doctor of medicine. His monument is in the lives of many made better by his kindness and his ministry of healing. His monument, too, is in the Anatomical School of the University."

The Bishop also referred to the death of Mrs. Britton, wife of Mr. F. A. Britton, master of St. Stephen's College. Hers was a spirit (he said) that rejoiced in the beautiful in music, in art, in whatever things were lovely and of good report.

SPORT.

CRICKET.

Saturday's cricket provided some interesting play. In the first League match two games were played, the R.G.A. beating the Indians at Happy Valley by 8 wickets and 130 runs and the O.S.C.C. after an exciting finish, winning from Craigengower by the narrow margin of three runs. Lieut. Graham's bowling for the R.G.A. was the best bowling average for the day's cricket in Hongkong. He took 3 wickets for 25 runs.

Second League play on the whole was uninteresting though the University in their fixture against the H.K.C.C. 2nd XI. showed how the bowling could be mastered. Their 260 runs for seven wickets declared was a brilliant effort.

The R.A.M.C. beat the C.S.C.C. 2nd XI. easily; Major Tomlinson's 80 did much to secure the victory.

The match between the Kowloon 2nd XI. and the Police resulted in a tie, a throw-in taking the last wicket when an attempt was being made to register the winning run.

Two friendly matches were played during the day, and each resulted in a draw. The Chinese R.C. were exceedingly fortunate in forcing a draw with the H.K.C.C. on the Club ground. E. J. R. Mitchell scored a century for the club in this game.

There was some good batting in the friendly game between Navy and Kowloon C.C. at King's Park and though a draw was effected the Navy, if anything, was superior.

FIRST LEAGUE.

CIVIL SERVICE v. CRAIGENGOWER.

This League match was played on Craigengower's ground on a bowlers' wicket and resulted in an exciting finish for the Civil Service who won just on time by three runs. The home team went in first and commenced badly. In fact the whole side made a poor start with the exception of R. Bass who played a fine forcing game throughout the innings. His 53 included two chances which were not taken advantage of.

The Civil Service effort was on a par with that of the home team, de Rome saving his side from defeat, nine players making 45 runs between them. De Rome's batting was faultless and in his 55 gave no chance. Wielding a free bat he sent the ball to the boundary time and again.

The fielding on both sides was good and Hamilton's four wickets for 15 was the outstanding bowling feature.

I.R.C. v. R.G.A.

A brilliant batting partnership was witnessed at the first League match between the Indians and the R.G.A. at Happy Valley on Saturday. The R.G.A. went in first, Capt. Davies and Capt. Oliver opening the batting. Their partnership produced 83 runs and the second wicket did not fall until the score had reached 124 runs. Lieut. Graham and Capt. Oliver carried the score to 178 for two wickets at which figure the visitors declared.

The Indians tried five bowlers but the bowling of each one was punished severely. The I.R.C. batting failed absolutely, all eleven players going out for a total of 48 runs. Lieut. Graham was responsible for the debacle, taking 5 wickets for 25 runs.

SECOND LEAGUE.

CIVIL SERVICE v. R.A.M.C.

Played on the Civil Service ground. The R.A.M.C. elected to go in and knocked up 100. Major Tomlinson carrying his bat for 60. Batting against Rhodes and Holland the Civil Service made a poor show, going out for 37. They looked a beaten side from the start. The play throughout was interesting. Holland's 4 wickets for 14 runs and Rhodes' 5 wickets for 23 were the only efforts worthy of note.

KOWLOON C.C. v. POLICE.

The remarkable feature about this match which was played at Happy Valley, on Saturday was the finish. In trying to steal the winning run both Jacks and Drake, for Kowloon, were run out and the game ended in a tie, both sides making 61 runs each. The bowling was not mastered throughout the match and wickets fell easily to Spinks and Brawn for the visitors and to Grimmett and Alexander for the home team.

H.K.C.C. v. UNIVERSITY.

This League match was played on the University ground and the University secured a well-deserved victory. Batting first the home side scored rapidly and declared at 280 runs for the loss of seven wickets. Yeoh and Hoalim being responsible for 145 runs between them. Most of the opposing side were tried as bowlers but the frequent changes did not seem to have the desired effect. Raworth's 51 for the visitors saved the side from an overwhelming defeat.

FRIENDLY MATCHES.

C.R.C. v. HONGKONG C.C.

Played on the Club ground on Saturday, both teams turning out strong sides. Throughout the game the H.K.C.C. played superior cricket and failing light robbed them of an almost certain win.

For the home side E. J. R. Mitchell batted well and carried out his bat for 103. He was consistent and whilst he punished the leather to the extent of 11 boundaries it could not be said that he forced the batting. The C.R.C. batted for time and despite the sound bowling of Young and Farthing they were fortunate in securing 81 for the loss of seven wickets. The fielding of the C.R.C. was, if anything, weaker than that of the Club.

The scores were as follows:—

HONGKONG, DECEMBER 12TH, 1921.

A QUADRUPLE ALLIANCE.

THE most important news from Washington in the cables to-day is, that the Anglo-Japanese Treaty of Alliance is to be terminated and there is to be substituted a Four-Power Treaty of wider scope, the parties to it being the United States, Great Britain, Japan and France. The objects of the two Agreements are not identical. The Anglo-Japanese Treaty of Alliance was made primarily for the preservation of the common interests of all the Powers in China by insuring the independence and integrity of China and the principle of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations in that country. When the Treaty was revised its scope was extended to the maintenance of the territorial rights of the high contracting parties in the regions of India, as well as of the Far East, and for the defence of their special interests in those regions. Generally, it was a Treaty for the consolidation and maintenance of the general peace in the regions of Eastern Asia and India. When the subject of the renewal of this Treaty came to be discussed, about a year ago, objections were raised in China as well as in other quarters of the world. The grievance of the new school of politicians in China was that it was a Treaty which placed China in an undignified position since it chiefly related to her territory and was made by the two Powers without consultation with China. Another grievance was that the aggressive policy which Japan has been adopting in China was made possible, in some way or other, by the Alliance, though there is very good ground, we think, for believing that the Alliance has had a restraining influence upon Japanese acquisitiveness in China. It will be seen from the cables to-day that Dr. WELLINGTON KOO voiced the first-named grievance at the Conference last week. He did not specifically mention this particular Treaty, but referred generally to "agreements which had been frequently made relating to the Far East without any participation by China or notice to the Chinese Government," and he brought forward a proposal that the Powers should agree not to conclude between themselves any treaty or agreement directly affecting China, the Pacific or the Far East, without previously notifying China and giving her an opportunity to participate. This is a claim which Mr. BALFOUR described as going "a good deal beyond any existing principle of international law," and Mr. HUGHES also defended the freedom of any Power to make the agreements necessary to preserve its proper interests.

It will be observed that in the new agreement, as the provisions are set forth in the cables to-day, there is no mention whatever of China. The Four Powers agree to "respect their rights relative to their insular possessions and insular dominions in the Pacific." It is not concerned therefore with territory on the mainland of Asia. France, we take it, is not associated in the Agreement because she has in Indo-China colonial territory larger than France itself, but because she has insular possessions in the South Pacific covering an area of over eight thousand square miles. Of these islands New Caledonia and Tahiti are the most considerable. The new agreement covers the whole of the "insular possessions" in the Pacific Ocean—north and south.

It will doubtless be a source of much gratification to the groups in China who have been vigorously protesting against the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty to learn that it is to give place to a Four Power Treaty which is not directly concerned with Chinese territory. An "affront to China's dignity as a sovereign State" will thus disappear with the formal cancellation of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty of Alliance. Yet China has to rely, for the present, not on her own strength, moral or physical, for the preservation of her integrity and independence, but mainly on such self-denying ordinances as are made by the foreign Powers themselves to this end. Chinese concern for the integrity of China would best be expressed by so reforming the government of the country as to evidence a dignity now so woefully lacking. That has been the greatest handicap of the Chinese delegation. Mr. BALFOUR, in commenting on "Dr. Koo's proposals relating to prior notification to China of treaties affecting the Far East, and the Pacific," emphasised that it was the desire of the Powers "to remove as far as possible the abnormal conditions in China and bring relations with China into normal course with the policy regulating relations between civilised States." All the Conference could do was to see that no undue limitation was placed on China's sovereign independence, and to give all the help in its power towards the creation of a pure and vigorous administration. Mr. HUGHES said much the same thing, and Mr. BALFOUR suggested that China had all the protection she needed in the matter of the Treaties in the fact that the members of the League of Nations, and the United States by its Constitution, were bound to publish treaties. China has no reason to be dissatisfied with what her delegates have achieved at Washington. The Conference has evidently been animated by a desire to meet China in all her aspirations in a spirit of the utmost sympathy, and the Delegation will evidently be able to return to Peking with a record of achievement exceeding the most sanguine expectations. But the point for China to note is that the concessions imposed upon her, obligations for such an improvement of her administration as will make her worthy of the trust and confidence which the Powers by their decisions repose in her. As we remarked last week, the Conference seems to be dealing with the government in China that they expect to see created, rather than with the government which now exists.

Two Chinese, charged with being in possession of opium following their arrest at the Great Eastern Hotel were on Saturday fined $100 and $2,000 respectively. The alternative sentences were four months' and eight months' imprisonment.

Police Inspector Edwin John Cotton has been appointed Sanitary Inspector for Stanley.

A lecture, which is open to the public, will be given at the Helena May Institute at 5.30 this afternoon by Mr. R. A. Nicholson on "Dahlia Growing in Hongkong."

W. Bro. H. Percy Smith was installed as Deputy District Grand Master of the Hongkong and South China District (E.C.), by Rt. Wor. Bro. Sir Paul Chater, P.D.G.M., at Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street, on Friday evening.

Capt. E. R. G. R. Evans, C.B., D.S.O., R.N., tells his story of Capt. Scott's last Antarctic Expedition, at the World Theatre at 9.15 p.m. to-night. H.E. the Governor is to preside, and the lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides.

The King has been pleased, on the recommendation of the Secretary for Scotland, to approve the appointment of Mr. Herbert Westren Turnbull, M.A., to be Regius Professor of Mathematics in the United College of St. Salvador and St. Leonard, in the University of St. Andrews. From 1911 to 1915 Mr. Turnbull was teaching at Hongkong. At present he is H.M. Inspector of Schools in England.

Two Chinese youths charged with stealing a silver watch and a set of compasses, the property of the Chief Officer of the s.s. Tushima Maru were brought before Mr. Lindell, at the Magistracy, on Saturday. Sub-Inspector Spear informed the Court that the vessel had left port and the officer could not attend. The articles were found in possession of the defendants by the ship's watchman. Mr. Lindell amended the charges to that of "unlawful possession and sentenced the first youth, who had a previous conviction against him, to three months' imprisonment; the other boy was also sent to gaol for six weeks.

WEDDING.

CHALONER-JOSELAND.

The marriage took place on Saturday morning, at Union Church of Mr. Robert Minto Chaloner, of Messrs. Butterfield & Swire, son of Mr. T. C. Chaloner, of Streatham, and Mrs. Agnes Cameron Joseland, widow of the late Mr. A. N. Joseland and daughter of Mrs. J. Macdonald, and the late Mr. J. Macdonald, formerly Government Marine Surveyor in Hongkong.

The bride was tastefully attired in tea rose crepe georgette trimmed with tulle lace of the same shade, her hat being a bronze lace. She carried a bouquet of bronze-coloured chrysanthemums. Miss Macdonald, sister of the bride, acted as Maid of Honour and wore powder blue crepe-de-chine with an overdress of net, embroidered in pink. Miss Macdonald's hat was a black panne tricorn with pink and blue and she had a bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. J. K. Macdonald gave the bride away, and Mr. D. L. Ralph, fulfilled the duties of best man. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Kirk Macdonald.

A reception followed at the Hongkong Hotel. Later Mr. and Mrs. Chaloner are going to Baguio, in the Philippines, for their honeymoon. The bride's travelling dress was a fawn gabardine costume, matched with a navy hat and a white fox fur.

The bridegroom's present to the bride was a diamond and platinum brooch and the bride gave the bridegroom a gold wristlet watch.

QUADRUPE ALLIANCE.

TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT.

ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY OF ALLIANCE TO BE TERMINATED.

WASHINGTON, December 11th.

Senator Lodge read the Four-Power Treaty which runs as follows:—

Article I.—The parties agree to respect their rights relative to their insular possessions and insular dominions in the Pacific. If there should develop between any of the parties controversy arising out of any Pacific question involving the said rights, which is not satisfactorily settled by diplomacy and is likely to affect the harmonious accord now happily subsisting between them, they shall invite the parties to a joint conference to which the whole subject will be referred for consideration and adjustment.

Article II.—If rights are threatened by the aggressive action of any other Power the parties shall communicate fully and frankly in order to arrive at an understanding regarding the most efficient measures to be taken jointly or separately to meet the exigencies of the particular situation.

Article III.—The Agreement remains in force for ten years after which it continues in force subject to the right of any of the parties to terminate it upon twelve months' notice.

TERMS ON WHICH AMERICA WILL SIGN.

WASHINGTON, December 11th.

At the plenary session of the Conference, Senator Lodge explained that the signing of the Treaty by the United States was subject to the conclusion of a convention with Japan concerning the status of Yap and the mandated Pacific islands, described in the Treaty and to an attempt to remove the causes of war over a great area of the globe by reliance on the good faith and honest intentions of the signatory nations, solving all differences through the processes of diplomacy, joint consideration and consultation. If the nations of the earth are still, in the innermost recesses of their consciousness, planning or dreaming of coming wars and longings for conquests, no partition Treaties and no Alliance could stay them, but it, as he firmly hoped, the world had learned a frightful lesson from the awful experience of the Great War, then the surest appeal in order to prevent wars must be to the hearts, sympathies, reason and higher motives of mankind.

FRENCH AND BRITISH VIEWS.

M. Viviani praised the Treaty as a clear and precise presentation of a great principle. France gladly accepted a place in the new international accord.

Mr. Balfour expressed faith in the new arrangement which was potent for good in international relationships. The Treaty made it apparent that the Anglo-Japanese Alliance was no longer necessary. Anglo-Japanese friendship had passed through the ordeal of two great wars. Something closer united them than the mere words of a treaty. All his life he had persistently advocated very intimate and very friendly relations between the two greatest branches of the English-speaking race. (Prolonged and tumultuous applause.) They therefore saw how deep was his satisfaction at seeing four great Powers putting their names to a Treaty which for all time would lead to peace in the territory concerned.

Referring to the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, Mr. Balfour said that Britain would have found herself faced with misunderstanding with the United States if the Alliance had continued and with misunderstanding with Japan if the Alliance had been renounced. The only solution, therefore, was to merge the old arrangement into a new one embracing all the nations interested.

JAPAN'S GRATIFICATION.

Marquis Tokugawa voiced Japan's gratification at the agreement. He reciprocated Mr. Balfour's appreciation of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance. He was confident that the peace of the Pacific would be fully protected by the new arrangement. All Japan would approve of the consummation of this work and would rejoice in this pledge of peace in the Pacific.

Signor Schanzer voiced Italy's satisfaction and Mr. Karnobek said the treaty would be received in Holland with the full belief that it would go far towards bringing permanent peace.

CHINA'S SATISFACTION.

Mr. Sze expressed China's satisfaction. He supported the Agreement would be supplemented by further conventions to include China and all the Powers interested in the Far East. The Chinese delegates were impressed by the progress of the Conference on other matters and were convinced that a satisfactory solution would be found of the remaining questions affecting China's sovereignty and aspirations. He promised wholehearted support in the maintenance of the friendly relations in the Pacific and the Far East.

APPROVED.

Mr. Hughes, wreathed in smiles, finally spoke. He doubted if in all the world there could be found a diplomatic document of such great import, couched in such simple terms. He firmly believed that when the Agreement took effect they would have gone further to securing enduring peace than anything that had yet been done.

Senator Lodge afterwards declared that although it had only been initiated by the heads of the delegations the Treaty had been approved to all intents and purposes.

OPPOSITION IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 11th. Notwithstanding that the Senate leaders in general predict the ratification of the Quadruple Agreement, Senator Reed, one of the irreconcilables, who fought against the ratification of the Treaty of Versailles, declares that his group will oppose the agreement as "treacherous, treasonable and damnable."

CHINESE AFFAIRS.

The various Far Eastern Committee's resolutions were unanimously endorsed. Mr. Hughes said most satisfactory progress had been made in the Committee. Senator Root's four points constituted a charter containing the insurance of China against acts of predatory aggression for the future guidance of the Powers. The Committee's resolution was an assurance by the Powers of careful observance of the principle of free and equal opportunity and that none would seek special advantages and privileges at the expense of others' rights. The Chinese delegation having assented, the resolution was adopted unanimously amid cheers. The Chinese also assented to the Committee's resolution favouring the abolition of extra-territorial rights in China thus making acceptance unanimous of the resolutions regarding China's neutrality. The prohibiting of treaties in conflict with Senator Root's resolutions was also unanimously adopted. Mr. Hughes did not present the resolution relative to foreign post offices in China, explaining that final action was premature. It is understood that the withdrawal date has not yet been fixed. The wireless resolution also was not presented as discussions are still proceeding.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS.

The Conference adjourned without considering the naval ratio question.

CHINA THE PRINCIPAL BENEFICIARY.

It is impossible to say where the idea of the Chinese not having a fair deal arose except as a deduction from the withdrawal of certain officials from the delegation. Anyway, the facts speak for themselves. The Chinese delegates have been listened to with the utmost attention and their requirements have been closely examined. Indeed, as recently stated, China is likely to be the principal beneficiary by the Conference.

Reuter's correspondent at Washington says that opinion in British circles is that China, on the whole, has succeeded very well. Naturally she asked more than she expected to get, but generally her demands were received with sympathy. The consensus of opinion is that Dr. Koo presented her case with tact, firmness and diplomacy. It is unlikely that China expects Britain to give up Kowloon while nobody anticipates that Japan will give up Port Arthur. If China obtains the bulk of her demands, together with the principles already accepted, it is believed that her delegates will depart satisfied with work well and thoroughly done in face of tremendous difficulties.

SINO-JAPANESE DISCUSSION.

The Chinese and Japanese discussed the saltfields, also the control of the Kiaochow-Tsinanfu railway. The Japanese argued that they had to reimburse Germany for the road under the Treaty of Versailles. The Chinese intimated that China was willing to reimburse Japan if the road was returned to China.

An official communiqué states that considerable progress has been made by the two delegations towards an understanding. Mr. Shidehara was present for the first time since his illness.

RETURN OF KIAOCHOW PUBLIC PROPERTIES.

WASHINGTON, December 10th. The Sino-Japanese delegates have agreed to return to China all public properties in the Kiaochow leasehold, Japan retaining those schools, amusements and cemeteries which are essentially Japanese. China is to refund the money spent during the Japanese occupation. The Agreement is subject to confirmation by Tokyo regarding one feature of it.

EARLIER CABLES.

TERRITORIAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE INTEGRITY OF CHINA.

A communiqué states that the Far Eastern Committee's resolution adopted yesterday was suggested by Sir Auckland Geddes and adopted with slight modifications. It provides that the Powers attending the Conference declare their intention "not to enter into any treaty, agreement, arrangement, or understanding with one another, or individually or collectively with any Power or Powers, which infringe or impair the principles declared by the resolution adopted by the committee on the 21st ult."—namely, Senator Root's resolution declaring for the territorial and administrative integrity of China.

"THE ESSENTIAL PRINCIPLE."

A communiqué states that the Far Eastern Committee met on the 8th. inst. All the delegates were present, except Senator Underwood, Signor Ricci, Baron Shidehara, and Senator Moresco.

Dr. Wellington Koo said that the essential principle laid down in point 3 of the Chinese proposals was that the Chinese Government should have pre-notification of the negotiations upon any treaty or agreement affecting Chinese interests. Agreements had frequently been made relating to the Far East, China particularly, without the participation of China or previous notice to the Chinese Government. He proposed that the Powers should agree not to conclude between themselves any treaty or agreement directly affecting China, the Pacific, or the Far East without previously notifying China and giving her opportunity to participate.

MR. BALFOUR'S SYMPATHY.

Mr. Balfour expressed sympathy with the broad aspirations of Dr. Koo, and emphasised the Committee's desire to remove as far as possible abnormal conditions in China and to bring relations with China into the normal course of policy regulating relations between civilised states. He thought it was the hope of all present to place China in a position to defend her neutrality so that she would no longer be a prey to acquisitive Powers.

Mr. Balfour thought this more likely to be attained by dealing with China's difficulties one by one, rather than by adopting the broad principle proposed by Dr. Koo.

STABLE CHINESE ADMINISTRATION NEEDED.

Another method, which ought to be still more fruitful, must depend upon China herself. All the Conference could do was to see that no undue limitation was placed upon China's sovereign independence and to give all the help in its power towards the creation of a pure, vigorous administration. He could not see that the position would be helped by the principle proposed by the Chinese delegation, which went a good deal beyond any existing principle of international law. Dr. Koo's principle involved the limitation of treaty-making rights of Powers, which was hardly acceptable. The great remedy for the evil of uncreditable treaties was publicity.

Mr. Balfour pointed out that all the members of the League of Nations, and the United States by its Constitution, were bound to publish treaties. That was a real protection for China.

THE VIEWS OF MR. HUGHES.

Mr. Hughes emphasised that the Conference did not wish to interfere, but wished to help China to establish sound government. Agreement to respect the integrity of the sovereignty of China implied agreement by China to respect the integrity of other Powers. Each Power should be free to make agreements necessary to preserve its proper interests.

PRINCE OF WALES'S TOUR.

NON-CO-OPERATION CAMPAIGN IN CALCUTTA.

The authorities are equally active and arrested one hundred picketers yesterday and one hundred and sixty to-day. A hundred have already been sentenced to imprisonment ranging from six months to two years for unlawful association and obstruction. The police raided the Khilafat office, seized documents and arrested the officials. A WONDERFUL SPECTACULAR EXHIBITION.

BOMBAY, December 8th.

A wonderful evening pageant on an illuminated platform was given in the Prince of Wales' honour. When the Prince arrived with the Maharaja, the hillside burst into a vast shimmering device in which Prince of Wales' feathers were silhouetted against the background. The procession was most impressive in its grandeur as it slowly rolled by to the accompaniment of a military band, alternating with the native bagpipes. Elephants, camels, lions, tigers also played a part.

When the native Infantry swung past, the Prince of Wales led the enthusiastic applause in tribute to their wartime services. These were succeeded by white-robed cavalry, who flitted out of the gloom like ghosts to the sounds of weird native music on old-time instruments. Quaint touches of incongruity were introduced by an elephant battery of brass cannon, followed by a caterpillar tractor hauling modern guns, also an "ex transport on whose heels was a column of the latest type of motors. A number of other vivid features contributed to a really marvellous display.

EARLIER CABLES.

DAILY CABINET MAJORITY AGAINST DE VALERA.

LONDON, December 9th.

While Mr. de Valera's message revealing a split in the Sinn Féin Cabinet over the Irish treaty shows rocks ahead, there is little disposition in London to take an alarmist view, seeing that four members of the Cabinet, constituting a majority, are in favour of ratification, including members as Mr. Griffith and Commander-in-Chief Collins.

Mr. Griffith has issued a counterblast saying that he will stand by the treaty in the belief that the end of centuries of conflict is at hand. Moreover, the mass of the Irish people are evidently in favour of peace. The news of the signature, followed by the immediate release of thousands of internees, led to rejoicings in the south of Ireland. No news since the armistice has made a happier impression in Britain, the Dominions, and United States. Congratulations have poured in to Downing Street from everywhere in the world.

It is stated that Ulster's attitude is not expected until after Sir James Craig's interview with Mr. Lloyd George to-day. Sir James came to London specially to seek elucidation of certain points in the treaty. Belfast received the news of the agreement coolly.

The King opens the special session of Parliament on the 14th inst. called to ratify the settlement. Parliament re-assembles at the new year, to pass the necessary Bill, after which, owing to the important constitutional changes involved, Parliament is expected to be dissolved. There is talk of a General Election in February.

THROUGH TRAFFIC IN CHINA.

Some time ago the Ministry of Communications created special organisations, to deal with the standardisation and unification of railway techniques, administration and accounts. The recent Through Traffic Conference has helped the Ministry to carry through part of its programme by the introduction of the single ticket from Central China to any station on the Chinese Eastern Railway. Some form of through traffic arrangements was promoted in 1913 by the Chinese Eastern, the South Manchuria, and the Peking-Mukden Railways, but the schedule was suspended in consequence of the European War. It has long been necessary to provide greater facilities to the public by providing such conveniences for travelling between the districts served by the Chinese Government Railways and the Chinese Eastern Railway. At the invitation of the Ministry of Communications this Conference was convened for the purpose of unifying traffic regulations and extending through traffic service to the benefit of the public and the railways themselves.

Prior to the present understanding in regard to this through traffic service, passengers had to go through the unpleasant formalities of purchasing fresh tickets at Changchun and rebooking their baggage. For one unfamiliar with local regulation of the lines and ignorant of the language of the country, the establishment of this through traffic service will overcome many difficulties, particularly those met with on the Chinese Eastern Railway, whose station staffs usually speak no other language but Russian. On and after 1923, one can purchase a through ticket from Peking, Tientsin, Suifu, Hankow, or Shanghai, the southernmost termini of the Chinese Government Railways to Manuli, Hailar or Suifenho (Pogranichnais), the terminal stations of the Chinese Eastern Railway, and book one's baggage through to the destination station without further trouble. The linking of these towns situated in the far northern corner of the country with the southern cities of China is a noteworthy achievement.

As soon as the Trans-Siberian Railway is again opened to traffic, these through traffic arrangements will be an advantageous factor in the re-establishment of through service between China and Europe.

The Conference was attended by delegates from the Chinese Government Railways, the Chinese Eastern Railway, and the South Manchuria Railway. From the Bureau of Economic Information.

THE NEW DOCTOR'S SIGNS OF DISEASE.

"How's your hair?" This is the new formula of the new doctor. "No longer does he resort to the old-fashioned custom of looking at the tongue, examining the eye, or feeling the pulse to ascertain the conditions of patients. He feels the hair, instead." "It makes no difference how much hair you have on your head," says the new doctor. "It depends wholly on the condition of the hair. An irritating scalp signifies to me much more than a coated tongue. Now I can tell by the feel of your hair" (rubbing it between his fingers gently) "if you are in good health. When I get the signal, by touch, that all is not well, I know quite definitely that I must make a diligent search."

CLUB v. S.C.A.

This match, on the Club ground, was a charity one for the Ying Tak Disaster Fund and the South China A.A., which managed the seating accommodation inside the ropes and made a collection on the ground, added to the fund $528.46. The Hongkong F.C. lent their stand free for the occasion and the gate amounted to $291.

South China won the toss and Mr. R. J. Wilton, President of the Hongkong F.A., started the game. The Club took up the attack from the start but Cheung Wing Shing returned to midfield and Fung Man Kit gaining possession, Gerard was forced to kick to touch. The Club were weak on the left wing and Kuhr, playing left half, had plenty to do. Had this player been up in the forward line in place of Mair the Club would have taken the lead early in the game. Following a free kick for hands against the Chinese, the ball dropped on top of the crossbar and rebounded out of play. Stewart was penalised for pushing. J. Rodger cleared at the expense of a corner and, following the flag kick, a scramble occurred near the Club goal. A foul against Begg sent the Chinese in and Rodger handled near the penalty area. J. Rodger miskicked a moment later and Wong, running through, sent in a fast ground shot which G. Rodger kicked up and punted to midfield. Leung Tak Cheong tripped Forsyth close in but just outside the area. McTavish sent over from the right and Forsyth headed into Lau's hands.

At the other end G. Rodger caught the ball from a shot by Wong and the latter, following up, kicked the ball out the goal-keeper's hands. Rodger recovered, picked up and cleared. The Club transferred play and Forsyth landed on top of the crossbar. Half-time. No score.

Resuming, the Club got away but Fung Tai cleared. A foul against Leung Tai Fong sent the Club in but Chan So returned. Ip Kau headed the wrong side of the post with Rodger beaten.

The Club pressed for a time and Lau saved well in the Chinese goal. McTavish dropped the ball in the goal-mouth and during the scramble Logan handled. Mair, playing inside, sent a shot straight to Lau who picked up with Begg in close attendance. The Chinese got away and Chui Kwong Yeung sent in a fast ground shot which Gerrard turned behind. Begg put in a good run and transferred to McTavish who returned and Lau did well to save with Begg close in. Towards the end of the game the play was in favour of the Chinese. On two occasions G. Rodger was beaten and the backs playing close in just managed to stop the ball from going under the bar. With the correct one on the play.

The game was well contested throughout and the result would appear to be the correct one on the play.

For the Club, Begg and Forsyth were the pick of the front line. In the open they played with combination but close in they resorted to individual play. A little combination well in spells defeat to many a good defence. McTavish sent over a few nice centres but several times he shot wide. Mair was weak at outside left while Logan lagged behind in the dash. The halves played well, the wing men being up against fast opponents. Stewart kept Wong well covered and had a couple of shots from long range. Gerrard and J. Rodger tackled and cleared well and on the play the former was little the better of the two. G. Rodger in goal played a good game and saved well.

The Chinese played up well, their weakness also being on the left wing. The teams lined up as under:—

Club—G. Rodger; Gerrard and J. Rodger; McPhail, Stewart and Kuhr; McTavish; Forsyth, Begg, Logan and Mair.

S.C.A.—Lau Hing Cheung; Fung Tai and Chan So; Cheung Wing Shing; Leung Tai Fong and Fung Leung Yat; Chui Kwong Yeung; Ip Kau, Wong Pak Chong, Fung Man Kit and Lau Tak Cheong.

Referee—Mr. Jones

"TAMAR" v. R.G.A.

For this match, on the Navy "B" ground, the teams turned out as under:—
"TAMAR"—Mick; Smith and Tomlinson; Grant, Hudson and Bryant; Hill, Briscoe, Hutton, Akey and McAuley.
R.G.A.—Woods; Walker and Frampton; Bailey, Pascoe and Donovan; Keay, McHugh, Lelliott, Harris and Couzens.
Referee: Mr. Chesley.

The play favoured the R.G.A. from the start and only the goalkeeping of Mick saved the sailors from defeat. The Tamar opened the score fifteen minutes from the start—Hutton, receiving a long pass from Hill, sent in a shot that struck the upright and rebounded into the net giving Woods no chance. Half-time score: Tamar, 1; R.G.A., 0.

Resuming, the R.G.A. had most of the play but could not get past Mick. Hutton received in midfield and, getting past Walker, tempted Woods to leave his goal with the result that Hutton put the ball into an empty goal. No further scoring and the Tamar won by two goals to nil.

The Tamar are to be complimented on their win for they swung the ball about better than the soldiers. Mick saved shots from all direction and should get his place in any team. Tomlinson returned to the side after two weeks on the injured list. Smith played a dashing game until he was helped off the field.

Hudson was the star of the middle line and very good at placing. Hutton led the attack well and scored the two goals for his side.
The rest of the sailors' line played good combination and the runs by Hill on the right were worthy of note.
Woods in the R.G.A. was not safe witness his running out to meet Hutton. Walker was weak and should have cleared before the second goal was scored. Frampton played a steady game and was sound. The pick of the middle line was Donovan who played neat football. His placing to his forwards was good. Pascoe makes an ideal centre half for staying power but plays chiefly to clear. Bailey made his first appearance in football this season and played well. The R.G.A. forwards worked together but failed miserably in front of goal. Their shooting was either tame or badly directed and too much individual play close in let them down. McHugh spoilt many a good run by ballooning the ball over the bar from close range.

WILTSHIRE v. "AMBROSE"

Played at Soekunpoo and ended in a win for the soldiers by two goals to nil.

The teams turned out as follows:—
Wiltshire—Turner; Trivett and Moore; Lancaster, Westall and Penfold; Warren, Evans, Menham, Swanborough and Amor.
"Ambrose"—Clements; Rowlands and Howard; Boineaves, Wiscombe and Butler; Welbourne, Jones, Hood, Drayton and Northcott.

Referee: Mr. Holland.
The Wiltshire started and the Ambrose took the ball down and forced a corner. The play soon went in favour of the Wiltshire and, following a rush on the sailors' goal, Menham sent in a hard drive which Clements stopped but could not hold and the ball rolled over the line. Half-time: Wiltshire, 1; Ambrose, 0.

Resuming, the sailors again got away and Turner saved well. The Wiltshire took charge of the game but had shooting prevented them from gaining any advantage. Swanborough managed to increase the soldiers' lead by beating Clements with a fast low shot. No further scoring took place and the Wiltshire ran out winners by two clear goals.

For the sailors, Howard played a great game at back and Rowlands gave him great assistance. Hood was the pick of the attack but was "selfish" in front of goal.

For the Wiltshire, Menham played his usual dashing game but missed several chances to score. Amor, on the wing, sent in a few long passes which should have been improved upon. The backs were not sound. The soldiers' middle line worked hard and prevented the Ambrose forwards from settling down.

KOWLOON v. POLICE.

On the Kowloon ground the teams turned out as follows:—
Kowloon—Crocker; Murrison and Oswick; Coupland; Weyman and McKelvie; Roberts, Doggrell, Townsend, Daneau and Coombes.

Police—Swan; J. Clark and McWalter; Miller, Forbes and D. Clarke; Mair, Watson, Robertson, Watts and Post.

Referee: Mr. Williams.
Pearson and Valentine were on the sick list and the Police attack suffered thereby. The Police had most of the play but could not score; their forwards shot anyhow. Townsend scored the only goal of the match and Kowloon won by one goal to nil.

For the Police, Swan, J. Clark and McWalter played a sound game; Forbes worked hard in the centre of the middle line. The forwards played well in the open but lost their heads close in.

For Kowloon, Coombes was the best of a good forward line. Weyman put in some good work in the middle line. The Kowloon backs played their usual kick and rush tactics which proved effective.

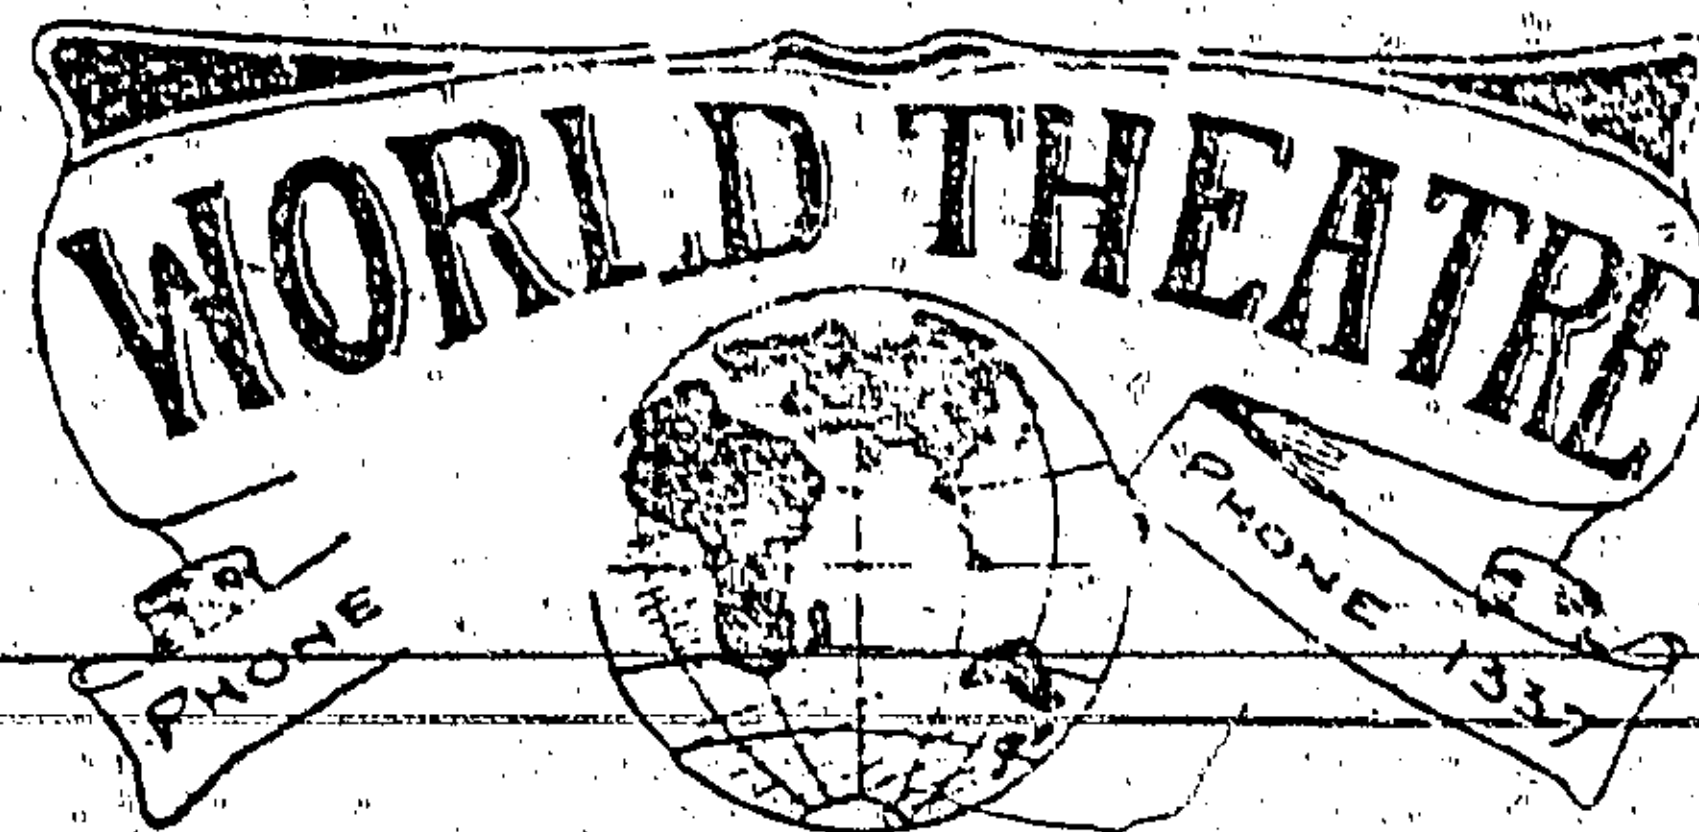

JUNIOR GAMES.

In the Junior game South China "B" scored an unexpected win over the University on St. Joseph's ground. Leading by two clear goals at half-time they kept the University out in the closing half and won with the half-time score unaltered. Tam Shuen Fu and Kum Fook scored.

South China "A" defeated the Club Reserves on the Navy "A" ground by one goal to nil. Play was in favour of the Chinese during the first half and Hutchinson scored a good goal for the Club. Half-time no score. Early in the second half Ko Sik Wei sent in a low shot which Hutchinson, just reached but could not clear and the ball went into the net.

R.G.A. Reserves beat the Putrajaya on the Railway ground at Kowloon by four goals to two. Pomfret scored for the R.G.A. in the first half and Kent, Bremner and Newcombe in the second. Nadir Khan and Anzal Shah scored for the Putrajaya.

At Soekunpoo, the Wiltshire Reserves defeated Kowloon and by 3 goals to nil. Ford scored twice and Couzens.

THE NIPPON YUSEN KAISHA.

A DIVIDEND OF 20 PER CENT.
PRESIDENT OF COMPANY ON SHIPPING CONDITIONS.

The regular general meeting of shareholders of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha was held at Tokyo, on November 28th to receive the report and accounts for the six months from April 1st to September 30th.
Mr. Ito, President of the Company, presided.

A dividend of twenty per cent. per annum was declared.
Addressing the shareholders, Mr. Ito made the following remarks in regard to the Company's business during the term under review and the future outlook:—
The results of the Company's operations during the term under review were rather unsatisfactory. The net profit was only ¥3,330,000, which was ¥2,200,000 less than that for the preceding term, and ¥6,000,000 less than for the first half of last year. This discouraging state of affairs was practically due to inactivity in the world's economic affairs, resulting in a decline in cargo and a fall in freight rates generally. In the passenger traffic, however, the results were very favourable,
because of an increase in fares.

The world's shipping still remains depressed, but on the whole it seems to be gradually becoming more stable. Merchant vessels tied up throughout the world immediately after the Great War amounted to 10,000,000 tons; but the figures have now been reduced to 8,000,000 tons. Whether this is only temporary, or is the forerunner of recovery, time alone can tell.
It may, however, be supposed that the freight situation will not become worse, provided no further unfavourable factors present themselves. The annals of the world's shipping show that there were three periods of shipping prosperity before the European war namely in 1889, 1900 and 1912. However, reaction followed the boom each time, and on an average it took four years and a half to recover from the depression. After the Sino-Japanese and the Russo-Japanese Wars, which were both confined to the Far East, Japan's shipping recovered after the lapse of four or five years of inactivity. A revival of the present shipping dullness which has affected the whole world will take many years. While the German reparation question has been settled, the coal strike in England and the threatened railroad strike in the United States caused general unrest. Should economic conditions in Central Europe, excluding Germany, and in Russia improve, this will contribute much to stabilizing world economics and reviving the export and import trade.

The tonnage of steamers built at the end of September was, according to Lloyds, 3,750,000 tons, excluding work suspended or delayed. The figures show a decline of over fifty per cent. as compared with the figures of a year ago.
We hope the Washington Conference will recognize the extension of equal opportunity and the open door principle in commercial affairs, and the freedom of commerce and shipping. Should a curtailment of armaments be effected, the money thus saved may be utilized for productive enterprises. In case the Japanese surplus population finds outlets in Siberia, Manchuria, Mongolia, South America and elsewhere, this will mean activity and extension of shipping. No pessimistic views need therefore be entertained as to the future of Japanese shipping.—Japan Gazette.

A BANKING TRUST MOVE- MENT IN CHINA.

An important banking movement in the Chinese banking business is reported by the Asiatic News Agency, which the Agency says will greatly strengthen the position of the Chinese banks and strengthen credit abroad if it is successfully put through. According to a formal declaration made by the Administrations of the Chin-chien Bank, the Salt Bank and the Chung-nan Bank, they have combined their business activities in Peking, Tientsin, Shanghai and Hankow.
The Chin-chien Bank, under the able direction of Mr. Chow Tso-min, has a paid-up capital of five million dollars and after only four years' working, has now a reserve fund of about half of a million dollars. The Salt Bank was established by Government permission in the fourth year of the Chinese Republic with a capital of five million dollars and one million and six hundred dollars reserve fund. The Chung-nan Bank was inaugurated this spring with a nominal capital of twenty million dollars, chiefly subscribed by wealthy Chinese merchants and others in foreign colonies, such as Singapore, Java and other South Pacific Islands. Only one-quarter of the capital has been paid by the promoters and the remaining funds will be forthcoming whenever the trade situation requires them. Hence, the combination of the three banks practically means the organization of a strong Chinese bank on modern banking lines instead of doing their business separately and it is believed that before long, other newly-formed foreign-styled Chinese banks will follow this example for their self-protection and to avoid suicidal competition.
Further, it is reported that the recent run on the Bank of China and the Bank of Communications has affected the majority of the newly-established banks to a certain extent, and they have come to the conclusion that keen and disastrous competition among themselves will merely encourage rival business in the country.
Vernacular journals have expressed the belief that in view of the financial situation, not only will the Chinese banks be organized into a big Chinese banking trust with a view to entering into partnership in the New Consortium on equal terms with the British, American, Japanese and French banks for the successful development of the vast natural resources of China; but trust corporations will also appear in the commercial fields shortly. This, the papers say, may cause the attention of capitalists in China and their predict serious labour troubles in the future.
